Discover a painting using Intentional Creativity to 'unwind' stress within your story and in your body.

You will create a symbolic painting of your Divine Diva - the mysterious one within connected to your own beauty myth, and the one with the power to unwind the myths.

PLUS + I will tell my own story of embracing my body and learning to bless it, being an adventurous girl, becoming ageless, mirror work with my beauty, and more to inspire and encourage, replacing old stories with the myths of a legend.

A class conceived in a dream in Italy by my teacher and maestra, to liberate hidden stress, places you are 'wound up' or 'uptight' through movements combined with symbolism, sensuality and discovery organic personal painting strokes that carry the 'shape' of how you are feeling. Bringing it out into form so it can be transformed. Divine Dive is the metaphoric muse for our process, a hidden one within you that holds your personal beauty myth, and, will be the one to guide you to uncoil it.

Intentional Creativity is more than just painting, it is about using magic brushes, rewritten stories, joyful movement and canvas portals to help ourselves to feel wondrous in our own bodies.

This methodology works directly with stuck areas of your story and patterns to liberate hidden energy so it can be expressed and freed, and by your own choice, transformed.

If you have been feeling trapped, wound up, up tight, ready to unravel....then join us for a cathartic journey to work with the energy of your own Divine Diva. Who is she? Only you know.
